Pechanga Casino RV Park

Thank you

Thanks for being our hosts this weekend, Rick and Irene Blacklock, and co-hosts, Richard and Zella Burk. You’ve put together a rally that was “well organized, well attended” and fun for all. Your efforts were greatly appreciated.

This year has been a successful rally year because of the generous contributions and sacrifices made by Members who have hosted. Their efforts have made this a better group! This is, and will be, an example for others to emulate in future rallies.

“You the man”

We have now discovered a new talent in the culinary field. Our Saturday breakfast chef, Richard Burk, decided against serving ready-made frozen waffles. Instead, he created, from scratch, a crisp but light Belgian waffle. Step aside, Costco frozen waffle, you have been replaced by something far superior! These were the best waffles I’ve ever had!

Noteworthy

There was diversity of food sources. Beside the Saturday evening chicken dinner, there were au gratin potatoes, & eggplant Parmesan. As with all rallies, Members contributed a variety of other side dishes. One of my favorites was the Caesar salad contributed by Doris Nixon. Our Host made a concerted effort to include a variety of food choices for us Vegans.

But wait, have I mentioned dessert. We never end dinner on Saturday night without our endless display of desert items. I thank you all for your participation in making this rally such a success. During our extended dinner, we enjoyed interesting conversations. People shared their travel experiences and problem-solved any difficulties they may have with their Airstream maintenance.

Technical

If you want to know about proper Hitch weights you should talk to our friend A C Wood. He will check out your trailer at the rally. You will need to give him advanced notice prior to the next rally so that he could bring his scale in to weigh your trailer. Another note to mention, we have, in our membership our very own technician, Abe Hernandez. Abe has been trained by Airstream and could help you resolve many of the issues you have with maintaining your trailer. Abe has been very reliable and available to do good quality work on our trailers.

Welcome

Finally, I would like to welcome our new members, Cherie and Jim Bray and Ruth and Paul Sandness. I wish them Godspeed in their future camping adventures. Some great rallies await you!

Our condolences

In the aftermath of the coordinated attack in Paris last week, we send our thoughts and prayers to our French brothers and sisters. Vive la France!

Thank you all for a great rally.

Another beautiful weekend in paradise. We were 36 at the Pechanga Rally. It's a first rate RV Park with an abundance of grass, trees and picnic tables at each site. First I want to thank Rick and Irene Blacklock for an outstanding weekend. And thanks to Richard and Zella for their fabulous Belgian waffles. We welcomed in two new members Jim and Cherie Bray, Paul and Ruth Sandness. The weather was nice and sunny and yet cold enough for sitting around the fire pits in the evening and sharing our Airstream stories and adventures. Not to forget another thanks to Rick and Irene Blacklock for volunteering their home for our June picnic. Guaranteeing a great picnic!

Alumafandango Caravan Update

R&B Events has sold more than half their sites, so if you’re interest in attending the Aluma event you will need to secure your site a.s.a.p!

R&B’s Alumafandango Event provides Airstream enthusiasts from around the country a unique opportunity to come together and discuss all things Airstream! It is for this reason we’ve decided this event would be the perfect venue for a Caravan!

The Caravan will begin with a two night camping excursion in Kernville, CA; the creekside camping will encourage even the most novice of fishermen to wet their lines. Then we trek up the road and travel North to the river in Stockton, CA. After spending two days camping, fishing, hiking boating or just relaxing by the river, we will load up and travel to the breathtaking wine country to join our fellow Airstreamers at the Jackson Rancheria Rv Resort!

Be sure to register for the Caravan today as there are a limited number of sites available. For more information email RoversRig@gmail.com
Wanderlust Adventures

We Love to camp! So we plan a few Annual events such as “Girls Night Out” and the Vintage Rally, but we really enjoy planning campouts around community events and outdoor adventures like hiking, biking, surfing, kayaking and our most recent adventure, zip lining!
La Jolla zip zoom is located within the La Jolla Indian Campground, however we were disappointed to find out the campground doesn’t allow dogs. And because dogs are such a big part of our adventures we didn’t want to leave them behind!

Instead, we camped at Palomar Mountain State Park which offered large campsites, clean bathrooms, beautiful tree canopies, is limited to a small number of sites which kept the noise to a minimum and was within driving distance of La Jolla Zip Zoom.

Take a look at some of our photos as we wander away from it all! :)

Heard there were skunks but never saw one that big!

Bewitched by the Blair witch!
Ghously ghosts haunting our adventures!

Message From the Editor

Happy Thanksgiving 2015:

I want to thank Vince and Trish Campanella for all the help they gave me on this newsletter. And to all the hosts and co hosts for making all our Rallies such a success. As we sit down to enjoy our Turkey Dinner lets give thanks to friends and family who make our lives so precious. Joe Thomas our webmaster notified us at the last meeting that the website will be updated next year with a new look. We are also looking into making it easier to pay our membership dues online using paypal. Thanks Joe and Dan for all your efforts.
